Rova — What's Left Before Launch

As of October 21, 2026 · Goal: both app stores before January 1, 2027

All the free building work that can be done now is done. Everything below either costs money, or is free but waiting on a paid step.

Paid steps (your move)

#	Step	Cost	Unlocks
1	Google Play developer account	$25 once	Android listing
2	Apple developer account	$99 / year	iPhone app
3	Form the LLC	about $200–1,000+	Business name, payouts
4	Lawyer review of terms and privacy	about $300–500	Legal protection
5	Tech liability insurance	about $500–1,500 / year	Route-lawsuit cover
6	Google voice key	$0 with a credit card ($30 deposit on debit)	AI voices on paid plans
7	Render Starter (right before launch)	$7 / month	App never sleeps

Free steps, waiting on a paid one

Free step	Who	Waiting on
Generate rova_keystore in Codemagic, upload Android build to Google Play	You (2 min), then me	Google Play account
iPhone build, notifications, ads, TestFlight	Me	Apple account
In-app purchases in both stores	Me	Both store accounts
Stripe live mode + AdMob payment info	You + me	The LLC
Launch switches (live ads, live checkout)	Me	Being in the stores

Costs at a glance

	Amount
Minimum to get into both stores (Google + Apple)	$124
Everything, first year	about $1,100–3,100
Monthly after launch	$7 + Stripe 2.9% + 30¢ per payment

Fastest path

1. Pay for Google Play and Apple first. Apple review can take a few days.
2. Form the LLC while the apps are in review.
3. Lawyer review and insurance before launch day.

4. Render Starter and the launch switches on launch day.
